FEBRUARY 2022

Welcome to the new Prima la musica! catalogue

We have added dozens of new titles since the last edition, welcoming new editors to our team and broadening the list of composers whose music is now available in Urtext performing versions. We have also relocated and opted for a more modern look for future editions in this new font - we hope you like the look, but we always welcome your feedback.

We have re-structured the catalogue by listing all our editions under four categories: Renaissance, Baroque, Classical and 19th century. After the Prima la musica! code comes the title of the piece. If this is printed in italics, then it involves voices. Below the title is the scoring (using the abbreviations given below) and the price - the first price is for a performing set (a score for each of the singers and the director, and a set of single parts; when you visit the website, you will be able to order extras) and the second, in brackets, is the price of a single score. If you plan to give a performance of some of our choral editions with a choir, or our larger instrumental pieces with multiple players, we suggest you contact us (details on the last page of the catalogue) so that we can negotiate a reasonable price. Some pieces are marked with asterisks*; it is possible to buy a single score of these works, but performance sets are available only after discussing your performances with the publisher.

The following abbreviations are used in the catalogue:

A	alto
B	bass
Bar	baritone
BC	Basso continuo
bn	bassoon
bv	basso di viola
d'am	d'amore
hn	horn
insts	instruments
mS	mezzo soprano
fl	flute
ob	oboe
picc	piccolo
S	soprano
str	strings
T	tenor
tmp	timpani
tp	trumpet
va	viola
vc	violoncello
vn	violin
[]	these voices or instruments are optional
{ }	these are specified only in one movement

As usual, we end with an invitation to suggest pieces that you would like us to publish. We will consider anything.

Best wishes from Scotland,

Brian

JOED MUSIC

In addition to our own editions of Renaissance music, we are the sole distributors of Jon Dixon's much-loved scores. As well as pretty much the complete music of Victoria, Jon edited (and I typeset!) most of Byrd's output (2023 marks the 400th anniversary of his death, so choirs should be exploring his amazing music), much Tallis, Lassus, Palestrina and Taverner, as well as others such as Clemens non Papa, Gombert, Mouton, Josquin and Ferrabosco.

Unlike Prima la musica! Urtext editions, Jon preferred to tailor the music to standard SATB choirs, so he transposed it to a suitable pitch and halved (or quartered) time values. His editions were commissioned by some of the leading English choirs including Westminster Cathedral and The Tallis Scholars and feature on dozens of recordings.

Jon also had a peculiar pricing system. Buying a basic performing set (i. e., one copy for each singer) costs one price. Buy anything between that and 10 copies and you get 20% discount. If you order more than that, you only pay 2/3 of the basic price.

JOED EDITIONS cannot be bought directly from the website. You should visit the Joed page, download an order form and send it so that we can process it for pre-payment.

J. F. Fasch: Die Gerechten müssen sich freuen

Musical score for J. F. Fasch's "Die Gerechten müssen sich freuen". The score is written for a full orchestra and vocal soloists. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 6/8. The instruments and voices are listed on the left side of the score:

- Trumpet 1
- Trumpet 2
- Trumpet 3
- Timpani
- Oboe 1
- Oboe 2
- Violin 1
- Violin 2
- Viola
- Soprano
- Alto
- Tenor
- Bass
- Basso

The score shows the first six measures of the piece. The vocal soloists (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) are currently silent, indicated by rests. The instrumental parts are active, with the strings and woodwinds providing a rhythmic and melodic foundation. The trumpets enter in the fourth measure with a fanfare-like motif.

Prima la musica! have been supporting Ensemble Diderot, masterminded by the fabulous Tyrolean violinist, Johannes Pramsohler, ever since they embarked on a journey that has seen them rise to the very pinnacle of chamber music making. Their innovative programmes give the four core players ample opportunities to display both their ready facility with the music and their intense passion for it. These are not only historically informed performances, but also deeply engaging and engaged ones.

After many successful recordings on their very own Audax label, it was decided to publish the editions which have all be prepared especially for them. With many more in the pipeline, the catalogue currently includes:

EDC001 Couperin: La Convalescente
